

WHO IS IT FOR?

RefugeesIN and its results are primarily addressed to professional staff working with refugees, civil society staff, experts in migration and social inclusion issues and adult educators.

Actions resulting in the RefugeesIN learning Package aim to overcome misconceptions and misunderstandings around the world refugees' crisis, encourage intercultural dialogue and promote their social inclusion.

INSPIRATIONAL RESOURCES

The REFUGEESIN LEARNING PACKAGE is now available!

The innovative cinema-based package entails a set of educational resources and supporting material for delivering the RefugeesIN Course:

- Brochure “Real life stories - from escape to belonging” (PT,DE,IT,SI,EN,GR)
refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/brochure.html

26 real-life stories of successful inclusion stories of former refugees, with potential role-model for inclusion close to newcomers.

- Film Catalogue (PT,DE,IT,SI,EN,GR)
refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/catalogue.html

Collection of 24 films depicting successful stories (fictional and real) of social inclusion of refugees. The Catalogue includes:

12 feature-length films

selected by individual partner focus groups showing fictional and true stories

refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/catalogue/films.html

12 short documentaries

generated within the RefugeesIN Course

refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/catalogue/documentaries.html

- Course (PT,DE,IT,SI,EN,GR)

refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/course.html

6 modules offering an innovative learning opportunity to empowering, extending and developing adult educators' competencies, for assisting their role in meeting the needs of refugees/asylum seekers with the ultimate aim to promote their social inclusion

- Guide (PT,DE,IT,SI,EN,GR)

refugeesinproject.eu/en/pack/guide.html

The Guide introduces the RefugeesIN rationale and approach for target audience both in adult learning (educators & providers) and civil society (staff and organisations) fields, illustrating how to use flexibly the assets in the Package
